Mrs. William G. Chase,

Seattle, Wash.

Dear Mrs. Chase:-

I enclose circular about "Seven Generations" and the other leaflets may be of interest.

The names of the children of the seventh generation are given with dates of birth and usually marriages, but not extended into families. Charles[6] was born in Seabrook, N. H., 20 April 1754 and died in Kingston in 1842. He had only one child by his first wife, Mary Calef, Charles, who died young. Second wife was Rhoda Dow, by whom there were several children, Amos being the youngest, born 2 April 1801, married 4 July 1827, Hannah A Hook of Brentwood.

The names of his children appear in unprinted form and could be given you, if desired.

Do you happen to know Mrs. C. F. Moe of Seattle? Her mother was a Chase from John[2] but branching there from the one you are interested in. I have visited Seattle yearly,with two or three exceptions, since 1909 and hope to repeat the coming Sept., if the"depression" lifts. Awaiting your further favors I am,

Sincerely yours,

Ethel D. Chase

INTRODUCTION

About the year 1846 there was a widely circulated story about a large fortune in England belonging to the Chase heirs in America which led to an immediate effort to establish family lines for the purpose of securing this prospective windfall.

Among those who became interested in the matter was Mr. Benjamin[7] Chase of Auburn, N. H., the author of the History of Old Chester, N. H., who began the collection of data relating to his own family and gradually extended his research until he had collected a large amount of material. It is proper to note, however, that he never had any faith in the myth, or in the practicability of securing and equitably distributing the "fortune," if it was actually in existence, and numerous letters in the newspapers of the period attest his strong convictions in regard to the subject.

In 1870, a new generation having come upon the stage, the old story was revived with a renewed effort to secure the "fortune," which naturally resulted in the collection of much additional genealogical data.

John B. Chace, M.D., a practicing physician of Taunton, and a descendant of a William Chace who appeared in Roxbury, in 1630, had accumulated a large amount of material relating to his immigrant ancestor and, incidentally, of the immigrants Aquila and Thomas, who appeared in Hampton, N. H., in 1640. He became imbued with the idea of printing the genealogy of the descendants of these three immigrants, and the material that had been collected by Mr. Benjamin Chase was turned over to him. He labored zealously for several years to accomplish his object but with failing health, due to advancing years, and the lack of means he was forced to abandon the project.

Mr. George Bigelow Chase of Boston, a descendant of Aquila[1] through Aquila,[2] Jr., also had been interested for several years in the subject, and had printed in the Heraldic Journal in 1868 a lengthy article relating to the Chases in England. He took up the work of bringing out a genealogy of the Aquila line and purchased of Dr. Chace the result of his long continued labors, but he never carried on the work to any great extent and a few years later deposited all of the material he possessed with the New England Historic Genealogical Society to become its property after his decease, which took place in 1902.

The genealogical material collected by the late William E. Gould of Brookline and Boston, and the late Joseph Warren Brown of Chicago, Ill., have also aided greatly in bringing this book to a very gratifying degree of completeness. Their collections are also in possession of the above-mentioned Society, and to its courtesy we are indebted for the use of this large quantity of material relating to the Chase family.

Mr. Gould was a native of Portland, Me., the son of Althea[7] (Chase) Gould, daughter of Deacon Asa[6] Chase, (Dr. William,[5] Lt. Wells,[4] Moses,[3] Moses[2]). He was the founder and for many years editor of The Chase Chronicle, the official publication of The Chase-Chace Family Association.

Mr. Brown was a native of West Newbury, the grandson of Samuel and Elizabeth[6] (Chase) Carr, daughter of Lt. Moses[5] Chase, (Moses,[4] Moses,[3] Moses[2]).

While the name of Chase has occasional mention as early as the 13th century it was, apparently, never a numerous family and at the present time the name is as rare in England as it is common in this country.

Although the Chesham Chases were entitled to bear arms after 1584, as evidenced by the report of a Herald's Visitation, this right does not inure to American descendants unless their line of descent is established, which we have been unable to do, as will be seen in the pages treating of The Chases of Chesham. However, in these later days the right to use a crest or coat of arms has little influence over those who have the desire to make such use, but know or care nothing about the proprieties governing the right.

On account of the great service rendered the descendants of Aquila and Thomas by Dr. Chace, it is deemed most fitting that a biography and his portrait should appear in this volume.

Inasmuch as the "fortune myth," during the thirty years in which it was rampant, was largely responsible for the collection and preservation of much valuable genealogical material that otherwise would have been lost, it seems proper to give for the benefit of those not familiar with its history, and for future reference, some account of the activities in relation to the matter and the final determination of the utter and total lack of authority for the origin of a story which led to the collection of a large amount of money from credulous and ignorant people, many of whom, probably, could not well afford their contributions.

At the annual reunion of the Chase-Chace Family Association held in West Newbury, June 27, 1907, Hon. Frederic H. Chase, of Boston, then a judge of the Superior Court of Massachusetts, delivered an interesting and instructive address on "The Chase Claim to English Millions," in which he set forth the different statements and claims that had been made from time to time with reference to the "Lawrence-Townley" estate and the Chase interests therein, and traced to their source these statements and claims in order to show what the truth was concerning them.

Although the inheritance had been mentioned as early as 1790 the story was not widely circulated until 1846. In that year a largely attended meeting, with some fifteen hundred persons present, was held in Newburyport, and a large sum of money raised to defray the expense of a committee chosen to prosecute the matter, but history is silent as to the result of this movement. In 1872 the story was revived "in some obscure town in Maine," and a meeting was held and an investigating committee chosen to report at a future meeting to be held in Boston. Apparently the committee did not function and at a meeting held 9 Oct. 1872 a new committee was chosen and authorized to raise funds to meet necessary expenses. The inducement was held out that those who subscribed might have the worth of their money by being given an engraving of the Chase Coat of Arms, a souvenir of doubtful value so far as the Chases in America are concerned. No evidence of the existence of the "fortune" was presented beyond what had already appeared in the form of newspaper articles, letters, speeches made at the meeting held in 1846, and some broad assertions. Following this appeal one of the signers was delegated to visit England to investigate.

The following from the Manchester, N. H., Daily Union of May 16, 1873, would indicate that a discordant note had been struck although enthusiasm ran high and money, while not plentiful, seemed to be forthcoming when needed.

"One of the Chases of Boston, who has been the chief confidant of the Chase heirs, has succeeded in raising sufficient money to insure a trip to England, and sailed on Monday of last week. He will undoubtedly visit the continent, attend the Vienna exposition, have a good time, write home that it will require a little more money to successfully prosecute the claim, and will continue to draw upon their eager expectations until they will suspect that their portion of the immense estate is safely deposited in his breeches pocket. We say to these enthusiasts who have joined their future bliss to this English humbug, 'Be of good cheer, life is short at best.'"

Apparently expectant kinsmen waited in vain for any report of their representative's doings and it is safe to say that he returned with less cash than he took with him.

In 1879 the movement received a new impetus and Mr. James Usher, of New York City, a lawyer of standing, was employed by the Lawrence and Townley families to undertake the work of establishing the claim. He went into the matter with great thoroughness and a full exhaustive account of his efforts and the results attained were given in book form in 1883. Reduced to the lowest terms, there was nothing in it.

At a later date the Hon. Edward J. Phelps, U. S. Minister to England, denounced the scheme as an outrageous fraud.

A later investigation by Mr. Frank Alden Hill, a Boston lawyer, brought out the meagre facts upon which the search of years had been based, a full account of his labors appearing in book form in 1885. "The marriage of a Chase to a woman bearing a name allied to wealth; a small unclaimed annuity; and a family squabble in court."

And yet we hear frequently from those who have an abiding faith in what has been proven beyond doubt to be a "myth" of the most pronounced type.

New material available after the earlier pages of the book had been printed, with some corrections will be found under Additions and Corrections.

Continued research in England has failed to add anything of material value to what has appeared in The Chases of Chesham.

The simplicity of the arrangement of the book would seem to make any explanation unnecessary.

JOHN CARROLL CHASE.

THE CHASES OF CHESHAM,
CO. BUCKS., ENGLAND

The general claim has been made that the brothers, Aquila and Thomas Chase, were descendants of the Chesham family of Chases in England. Mr. George Bigelow Chase of Boston assumed it to be true in the most elaborate contribution to Chase literature that had appeared in printed form, which he published in 1869. This connection has been given in practically every publication relating to Chase families that has later appeared, but our investigations fail to confirm it.

It was assumed, or claimed, that the brothers Aquila and Thomas Chase were sons of the Aquila Chase who was baptized in Chesham, 7 Aug. 1580. The name and dates are entirely consistent with the supposition, but the facts studied at close range show that the assumption is not correct.

Extensive research shows that the above named Aquila Chase went from Chesham to London, there married, was the father of six children, was a merchant tailor, lived in Knight Rider's street, attended the two Established Churches in that street and, with his wife and five of his children, was there buried.

The parish registers fail to show that he had a son Thomas but they do show that he had a son Aquila who was baptized in the parish of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey. The parish register further shows that Aquila Chase, the tailor, and Aquila his son, there baptized, were also buried there. As there was only one Chase family living in Knight Rider's street, 1606 to 1660, we feel justified in assuming that Aquila and Thomas Chase, the Hampton brothers, could not be the sons of Aquila Chase of Chesham, England. They may be descended from the Chesham family but our researches fail to show such a connection.

The use of the comparatively infrequent name of Aquila in both Chesham and New England is, however, very suggestive of a connection between the two families.

For the benefit of future investigators who may be interested in the origin of these early settlers of New England, we give the documentary records obtained with our interpretation of the evidence they afford.

In this connection it may be noted that the usual "three brothers" tradition about the early immigrations of families does not apply to the Chases. No evidence has been found to support the claim, which has appeared in print innumerable times, that William Chace was a brother of Aquila and Thomas. In one instance it was stated that this relationship was proven by Aquila's will making a bequest to his niece, "daughter of his brother William." This will, as will be seen, makes no such bequest.

From whence and how William came has not been established, notwithstanding the various statements that have appeared in print. It can be credibly assumed that he was the first of the name to appear in New England, coming, it is supposed, in Governor Winthrop's fleet, although his name does not appear in any of the more or less incomplete lists of passengers. On the records of the First Church of Roxbury, Massachusetts, in the handwriting of the Rev. John Eliot, "Apostle to the Indians," we find the following entry, "William Chase, he came wth the first company, 1630," which would indicate that he first settled in that place.

The Rev. Thomas Chase, a clergyman of the Church of England, appears in Maryland in 1737 and was appointed rector of St. Paul's church in Baltimore in 1743, but we have been unable to establish any English connection. His son, Samuel, was prominent in civic affairs, signed the Declaration of Independence and was assocciate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States from 1796 to his death in 1811, at the age of seventy.

His former residence in Annapolis, Maryland, a three-story brick house, built in 1770, is a very fine specimen of Colonial architecture, particularly the interior, and is an object of great interest to those who visit that historic city.

It was inherited many years ago by the Episcopal Diocese of the state and is now a Home for Old Ladies.

A John Chase came from the Barbadoes and settled in Providence, R. I., in 1720, but, as in the case of the Rev. Thomas, little is known about his descendants.

There are also other lines claiming English ancestry which we have been unable to verify.

While the name of Chase has occasional mention in England as early as the 13th century, it was, apparently, never a numerous family and at the present time the name is as rare there as it is common in this country.

WILLIAM[3] CHAASE (John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 25 Mar. 1565, which was new year's day as time was then reckoned. On 18 Apr. 1599 his father calls him "myne eldest sonne" and gives him ten pounds. The parish register of Chesham does not mention him after his baptism prior to 1636.

He was admitted to King's College, University of Cambridge, 24 Aug. 1583, at the age of 18. He was born at Great Chesham, Bucks, and received the degree B.A. 1587-8; M.A. 1591; M.D. 1601; Fellow, 1586-1603; died in College, 1603. (Alumni Cantabrigienses, 1:326). He was living in 1599, as he was mentioned in his father's will of that year.

MATTHEW[3] CHAASE (John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 6 Jan. 1576/7. He was residuary legatee and executor of his father's will, 18 Apr. 1599. He married about 1598, ELIZABETH ———, called in Philipot's Visitation of Buckingham made in the year 1634, "daughter of Richard Bold." On 3 Feb. 1626/7, Matthew Chase of Stoke Poges, county of Bucks, gentleman, executor of the will of Richard Bowle, late of Great Chesham, Esq. deceased, entered in Chauncery a complaint against Sir Francis Stanton.

He was living in Chesham in 1634. He died in Stone, county of Kent, and his widow Elizabeth administered upon his estate, 19 Nov. 1638. She made her will in Stone, 24 Jan. 1650/51 which was proved 8 May 1651. Therein she mentions her sons Richard, the eldest, to have the estate in Chesham, county of Bucks, and her other sons Matthew, John, "if he return as he has not been heard from for a number of years," Ralph and William.

Matthew[5] Chase of Chesham had granted to him, about 1634, "Gules, three crosses patonce argent on a canton or, a lion passant azure." (Philipot's The Visitation of the County of Buckingham, 1634, p 24).

Children, born and baptized in Chesham except the eldest:

17. RICHARD,[5] b. before 1601.
18. FRANCIS, bp. 20 Sept. 1601.

RALPH[3] CHAASE (John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 15 Feb. 1578/9. He received a legacy from his father 18 Apr. 1599 which he was to come into possession of at the age of 23.

He is the Ralph Chase of Great Marlow, county of Bucks, who made his will 18 Nov. 1643, which was proved 10 Jan. 1644/5. He mentions his wife ELIZABETH ———, his son Stephen and Stephen's son Stephen, John, son of his brother Stephen deceased, and his daughters Martha and Hannah.

His widow Elizabeth Chase made her will 9 Jan. 1651 which was proved 4 Mar. 1651. She mentions a gift to the poor of Great Marlow and her nephew Stephen Chase.

Children:

24. STEPHEN.[4]
    MARTHA.
    HANNAH.

SAMUEL[3] CHAASE (John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 18 Sept. 1581. He is not mentioned in the parish register prior to 1637. He was to receive ten pounds from his father's estate at the age of 23. Hence he was alive 18 Apr. 1599. He removed to Dublin, Ireland, and there made his will 23 July 1627 which was proved 16 Jan. 1635/6. He mentions his mother Alice Chase, his sisters Elizabeth, Martha and Hannah (another form of Anne) and his brother Stephen Chase to be executor. It is evident from this will that he had neither a wife nor children.

The registers of ten of the parishes of Dublin have been printed in full and they do not contain the name of Chase.

STEPHEN[3] CHAASE (John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 21 May 1587. He received a legacy of ten pounds by the terms of his father's will, 18 April 1599, "to come into his possession at 23." On 23 July 1627, his brother Samuel Chase, then of Dublin, Ireland, appointed him executor of his estate. On 18 Nov. 1643, his brother Ralph Chase, then of Great Marlow, county of Bucks made a bequest to "John, son of my brother Stephen Chase, deceased."

Apparently he removed to St. Martin-in-the-Field, county of Middlesex where his widow ANNE ———, was granted power to administer, 4 June 1646. His widow made her will in the same parish 12 Oct. 1652 which was proved, 25 June 1653. She styles herself widow of Stephen Chase, apothecary of St. Martin-in-the-Field. She mentions Richard Chase of Chesham, county of Bucks, clerk, and her sons Stephen and John (who had a son James) and her daughters Anne and Mary.

Children:

24a. STEPHEN,[4] alive 12 Oct. 1652.
25. JOHN, mar. and had son James, 1652.

ROBERT[3] CHAASE (Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 2 Sept. 1565. He was a tanner by trade and lived in Chesham, 1601 to 1604. He married about 1600, JOAN TOKEFIELD, who was the mother of his children baptized in Chesham. The parish register calls him a tanner. His servant William Dell, son of Thomas Dell of Chartridge, was buried in Chesham, 8 July 1601.

Children, born and baptized in Chesham:

26. THOMAS,[4] bp. 12 Nov. 1601; alive 1641.
27. BENAJAH, bp. 29 May 1604; alive 1641.

HENRY[3] CHAASE (Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 10 Aug. 1567. On 18 Apr. 1618, James Birch of Great Chesham in his will of that day mentions "my cousin Henry Chase" who also appears as a witness to the will. He died in Chesham between 18 Apr. 1618 and 11 Feb. 1618/19. The register of Chesham shows that Mr. Henry Chase was buried there, 10 Dec. 1618. His widow Margaret, administered upon his estate 11 Feb. 1618/19. She made her will in Great Chesham, 27 Mar. 1619 which was proved 22 Apr. 1619. She was buried in Chesham, 6 Apr. 1619.

Margaret Chase, in her will, mentions the estate which came to her from her mother Katherine Givin deceased, and her children, Katharine Chase and Henry Chase, both under 21 years of age. Her kinsman Matthew Chase, named as executor.

Children, born in Chesham:

28. HENRY,[4] alive and under 21, 27 Mar. 1619.
KATHARINE, alive and under 21, on same day.

EZEKIEL[3] CHAASE (Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 23 Apr. 1576. He married ELIZABETH ———, before 1619 and was living in Chesham that year. She was a widow and living 6 May 1663.

Child, born and baptized in Chesham:

29. MATTHEW,[4] bp. 7 June 1619.

AQUILA[3] CHAASE (Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) son of Richard and Joan (Bishop) Chase, was baptized in Chesham, Co. Bucks., 7 Aug. 1580. It is assumed that he is identical with Aquila Chaste who married in the parish of St. Thomas-the-Apostle, London, 22 June 1606.

The church of St. Thomas-the-Apostle was located on Knight Rider's Street (which later was called Old Fish Street) and on the same street in London was located the church of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey.

Aquila Chaste married in the parish of St. Thomas-the-Apostle, 22 June 1606, MARTHA JELLIMAN, probably daughter of John and Margerie Jelliman. John Gilliman was buried in that parish, 7 May 1620, and Margerie Jelliman, widow, was buried there, 18 Aug. 1621.

Aquila Chaste lived in the parish from 1606 to 1611 and then he appears as a merchant-tailor and lived in the parish of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey, 1611 to 1644. Two children were baptized and buried in St. Thomas-the-Apostle and four children were baptized in the parish of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey. Martha the wife of Aquila Chase was buried in the cloyster of the church of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey, 15 Aug. 1643, and Aquila Chase, tailor, was buried in the same parish, 9 Feb. 1643/4. The parish register styles him six times merchant-tailor. An examination of the apprentice books of the Merchant Taylor's Company of London from 1583 to 1669 fails to show that he was apprenticed to any one in London.

Children, born in Knight Rider's Street, London:

ANNE,[4] bp. 26 Feb. 1607/8; bur. 19 July 1609.
MARTHA, bur. 11 Mar. 1610/11; both in St. Thomas-the-Apostle.

JOANE, bp. 30 Mar. 1623; bur. 17 Aug. 1624.
AQUILA, bp. 9 Apr. 1626; bur. 10 Jan. 1659/60.
The last four in the parish of St. Nicholas, Cole Abbey.

THOMAS[3] CHAASE (Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 18 July 1585. His wife was MARTHA ——— and they lived in Chesham, 1631 to 1636. As the burials were not published after 1636, it is not known when they died.

Children, born and baptized in Chesham:

THOMAS,[4] bp. 8 Dec. 1631.
WALLIAM, bp. 30 Oct. 1636.

HENRY[3] CHAASE (William,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 6 Sept. 1573. He married (1) MARIE ——— who was the mother of his children. She was buried in Chesham, 6 Mar. 1611/12. He then lived in Waters in the parish of Chesham. He married (2) in Chesham, 8 Oct. 1612, ALICE BACHILOR, daughter of Thomas Bachilor, baptized in Chesham, 10 Nov. 1572. (Katherine, wife of Thomas Bachelor of Chesham was buried, 7 June 1573). Their burials are not recorded in Chesham prior to 1660.

Children by first wife, born and baptized in Chesham:

MARY,[4] bp. 1 May 1597.
30. JOHN, bp. 26 Mar. 1600.
MARTHA, bp. 13 June 1604; bur. 22 June 1604.
31. STEPHEN, bp. 7 Sept. 1606.

RICHARD[4] CHAASE (Matthew,[3] John,[2] Thomas[1]) was born before 1601. His baptism is not recorded in the parish register of Chesham. According to Philpot's Visitation of 1634, he was the eldest son, then married to MARY ROBERTS of Willsden, county of Middlesex. In 1634 he was living in Chiselhurst, county of Kent. On 24 Jan. 1650/51, his mother made her will in Stone, county of Kent, and called him her eldest son and gave him her estate in Chesham, county of Bucks.

This must be considered evidence that Matthew Chase of Stone and his widow Elizabeth removed from Chesham to Stone in their old age and that their son Richard was alive in 1651.

Richard[4] Chase was admitted a pensioner at Sidney College, University of Cambridge, 7 May 1614; son of Matthew Chase of Chesham, Bucks; received the degree B.A. 1617/8; M.A. 1621; B.D. 1628; ordained deacon at Peterborough, 22 Sept. 1622; ordained priest 23 Sept. 1622; resided at Chislehurst, Kent, till 1641; resided at Stone, Kent, about 1637. Minister of Chesham Bois, Bucks., 1662. Chaplain to his uncle John Bowle, Bishop of Rochester. (Alumni Cantabrigienses, 1:326).

Children:

RICHARD,[5] b. before 1634.
ROBERT, alive 4 Apr. 1666.

18

FRANCIS[4] CHAASE (Matthew,[3] John,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 20 Sept. 1601. According to the records of the Merchant Taylor's Company of London, "Francis Chase, son of Matthew Chase of Chesham Magna, county of Bucks, gentleman," was apprenticed 8 Dec. 1617, for nine years to Thomas Browne, merchant adventurer, to Spain and Barbary. Francis was then 16 years of age.

19

JOHN[4] CHAASE (Matthew,[3] John,[2] Thomas[1]) born and baptized at Chesham, 4 Dec. 1603; admitted a sizar at Sidney College, University of Cambridge, 5 July 1621, at age of 16; son of Matthew Chase, gentleman; born at Chesham, Bucks; received the degree B.A. 1624/5; M.A. 1628. He was a brother of Thomas (1628) and of Richard (1614). (Alumni Cantabrigienses, 1:326).

20

MATTHEW[4] CHAASE (Matthew,[3] John,[2] Thomas[1]) was born in Chesham, 29 May 1608; died in Stone, county of Kent, between 4 Apr. and 30 Apr. 1666. He made his will 4 Apr. 1666 which was proved 30 Apr. following. No wife or children mentioned but his brother Richard Chase and Richard's wife and their children Richard and Robert are named.

THOMAS[4] CHAASE (Matthew,[3] John,[2] Thomas[1]) born and baptized in Chesham, 20 Feb. 1610/11; admitted a pensioner at Sidney College, University of Cambridge, 3 July 1628, at the age of 16; son of Matthew Chase, Esq.; born at Chesham, Bucks; did not take his degree. (Alumni Cantabrigienses, 1:326).

29

MATTHEW[4] CHASE (Ezekiel,[3] Richard,[2] Thomas[1]) was baptized in Chesham, 6 June 1619; died there between 6 May and 12 Dec. 1663. He was a tanner by trade and married ALICE ——— who died in 1668. They lived in Chesham.

Children, alive 6 May 1663:

MATTHEW,[5] under 21 on 6 May 1663; eldest son 11 Apr. 1668.
EZEKIEL, under 21 in 1663; alive 1668.
RICHARD, under 21 in 1663; alive 1668.
ROBERT, under 21 in 1663; alive 1668.
ALICE, under 21 in 1663; alive 1668.
JOHN, youngest in 1663; alive 1668.

THOMAS CHASE, a London merchant, married in the parish of St. Botolph Bishopsgate, London, 28 Apr. 1608, DOROTHY SMITH. He was probably a brother of Jeremy Chase, alderman of Cambridge and of William Chase of St. Peter's by Paul's Wharf, London, who made his will 23 Mar. 1581/2.

Apparently he is the Thomas Chase who made his will 30 Oct. 1631, which was proved in London, 14 Nov. 1631. In this will he styled himself "citizen and grocer" and mentioned his wife Dorothy and two children without giving their names. Presumably Edward Chace who styled himself "servant to the Hon. English East India Company in their factory at Bantam in Java Major," 1 Nov. 1638, in his will which was proved in London, 29 Aug. 1639, was his son. In his will Edward Chace refers to his mother Mrs. Dorothy Chase, widow, living in St. Mary Axe Street, London, and his sister Dorothy. The probate of the will, 29 Aug. 1639, shows that his mother died between the date of execution and probate and that his sister was then married and known as Dorothy Rhoades.

The above-named Thomas Chase is believed to be the Thomas Chase who was part owner of the ship John and Francis of London, 140 tons, to which letters of marque were issued 3 Feb. and 3 Mar. 1627, whereof Thomas Witherly was master.

Children, born in London:

EDWARD, d. unm. in Bantam, Java, between 1 Nov. 1638 and 29 Aug. 1639.
DOROTHY, m. before 29 Aug. 1639, ——— Rhoades.

AQUILA CHASE AND HIS DESCENDANTS

AQUILA[1] CHASE appears first at Hampton, N. H. A company under the leadership of Rev. Stephen Bachiler is supposed to have commenced the settlement on 14 Oct. 1638. (Dow's History of Hampton, 10-11). Early in the year 1639 a new band of settlers came with Mr. Timothy Dalton, who became associate pastor of the Hampton church. The town was incorporated by the General Court of the Massachusetts Bay Colony 22 May 1639. It is probable that Aquila and Thomas Chase came with the second company as it appears that emigration was greatly diminished by the year 1640.

Various traditions are extant about the date and manner of their arrival in this country, but they are only traditions with little likelihood of ever being anything else, due to the lack of preservation, or later loss, of the shipping lists of that period.

The first town meeting of Hampton, of which there is a record, was held 31 Oct. 1639, and 24 Dec. of the same year land was allotted to fifteen grantees, the first grants being small house lots. In June 1640 other persons became grantees, among them being Aquila Chase and Thomas Chase.

The Hampton records show that in 1640 there was granted to Aquila Chase six acres for a house lot. In 1644 an additional grant was recorded of six acres of "upland meadow and swamp," which he sold to his "brother Thomas" on his removal to Newbury.*

The home lot of Aquila Chase was a part of what has long been known as the Perkins homestead. Here undoubtedly he erected a log house which he occupied until the summer in 1646. The homestead was located south of Meeting House Green, near the marshes on the road to the ancient Tide Mill.

The town made an agreement with Richard Knight 4 Aug. 1640, that he should build and keep a mill at the Landing about half a mile south of the "Green." It is likely that this was called "The Landing" on account of being the place where the first settlers brought their shallop to shore.

The common lands were granted to the proprietors of house lots in Hampton, 23 Feb. 1645/6, Thomas Chase receiving two shares and his brother Aquila one share. (Dow's History of Hampton, 32-33). Thomas Chase had at this date a wife and two children while Aquila had probably only a wife.

He was one of the Hampton petitioners, 7 Mar. 1643/4, for a modification of the law regulating military drill which had been in force for three years previously. The petition was presented to the Governor, Deputy Governor, Council and Deputies of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. (N. H. Provincial Papers, 1: 165). It contains the names of twenty-nine of the Hampton settlers but the name of Thomas Chase does not appear.

In 1646 he was induced to remove to Newbury, as evidenced by the following extract from the Newbury records of that year.

"Granted to Aquila Chase, Anno 1646, fower acres of land at the new towne for a house lott and six acres of upland for a planting lott, where it can be had, and six acres of marsh where it can be had, also on condition that he doe goe to sea and do service in the towne with a boate for four years."

The inducement to remove to Newbury would indicate that he was a mariner or fisherman and Joshua Coffin in his History of Newbury states that it is a Chase family tradition that Aquila was the first person to pilot a vessel across the bar at the mouth of the Merrimack river.

Before he removed to Newbury he was seen gathering pease on the first day of the week and at the Quarterly Court held at Ipswich, 29 Sept. 1646, he and his wife, and David Wheeler, his brother-in law, all "of Hampton," were presented for gathering pease on the Sabbath. The witnesses were William Sanborn and William Fifield, both inhabitants of Hampton. (Records and Files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, 1: 110). At the next session of the Court held at Ipswich, 30 Mar. 1646/7, they were presented again for the same offence and the constable reported that the summons had been sent to Hampton and that the parties were not there but "were gone to Newbury." (Ibid, 1: 113). On 28 Mar. 1647/48, they were admonished and their fines were remitted. (Ibid, 139).

The removal must have been soon after the pea-picking episode as he was not to be found in Hampton when the Court summons of 29 Sept. 1646, reached there.

The "fower acres of land at the new towne for a house lott' was in what is now Newburyport, on the northeasterly corner of Chandler's Lane, now Federal Street, and the "way by the Merrimac river," now Water Street, as evidenced by the sale of the lot several years later.

On May eleventh, 1667, Aquila Chase of Newbury acknowledged that he sold unto his brother Thomas Chase of Hampton, all his land in Hampton excepting a dwelling and one acre and a half of land which had been sold about twenty years before the date of these presents. (Old Norfolk County Deeds, 2: 122).

This acknowledgment is signed by Aquila Chase and his wife Ann Chase, and establishes the relationship between Aquila and Thomas.

A deposition presented at the Quarterly Court held in Ipswich, 25 Sept. 1666, mentions "Accquilla Chas, aged about forty-eight years," which would make 1618 the year of his birth. (Ibid. 3: 347).

He was one of the free-holders and had an interest in all commons belonging to the town of Newbury, 10 Jan. 1653.

He was one of fifty-eight Newbury men who petitioned the General Court of the Massachusetts Bay, 14 May 1654, that the fine imposed upon Lt. Robert Pike of Salisbury be remitted.

Sometime before 1659, or early in that year, he sold his homestead to Robert Rogers of Newbury, who in turn sold it for £40 to William Moody of Newbury, 4 Apr. 1659. (Ipswich Deeds, 2: 206). The western portion of the adjoining lot, at first owned by his brother-in-law, David Wheeler, was sold to Caleb Moody with the house thereon, 16 Jan. 1667. (Currier's Ould Newbury, 1896, p. 149).

Robert Rogers of Newbury and Susanna his wife, for £40 sell to William Moody of the same town:

> "all my now dwelling house and all my land lately purchased of Aquilla Chase containing about four acres be it more or less, being bounded with the land of Henry Fay, lately deceased, on the south, the land of William Morse and David Wheeler on the west, the way next Merrimack river on the north and the lane on the east," signed by Robert Rogers and Susanna Rogers, 4 Apr. 1659. Susanna Rogers did consent to the sale of the house and land and did relinquish her thirds, 12 Apr. 1664, before Symon Bradstreet. (Ipswich Deeds, 2: 206).

The foregoing would indicate that Aquila Chase had previously sold to Rogers but there is no deed to that effect on record.

After this sale it can be assumed that he took up his residence on the "six acres of upland for a planting lott," which we are able to locate on the north side of Sawyer's lane, now North Atkinson street, about five hundred feet from its intersection with Low street.

Here he lived until his death, 27 Dec. 1670. The place of his burial is unknown but it was probably in the grave yard at Oldtown as the yard at Sawyer's hill was not in use until some thirty years later.

In 1668 Daniel Merrill bought of John Godfrey eighteen acres with the "housing" near the Great Pine Swamp, which tract was bounded on one side and end by land belonging to Aquila Chase. The Great Pine Swamp lies a few rods west of Low street, and is a positive and permanent identification of location. Daniel Merrill's will, dated 1717, gives his homestead in Newbury to his oldest son, Daniel, who married Esther Chase, daughter of Aquila,[2] Jr.

Daniel, Jr., died about 1725, and the division of the estate is recorded in the probate records. His son Peter had half of the house and probably bought the other half, and lived there. His will was proved in 1778, and gave to his son Jacob all of his real estate. The house stood at the intersection of North Atkinson and Low streets, and was known until its demolition as the Jacob Merrill house.

The will of Aquila[1] Chase, dated 10 Dec. 1670, gives the homestead to his oldest son, Aquila,[2] who made a will (now in the possession of one of his descendants), but died before signing it, and the estate was divided by the heirs in 1723. Daniel Merrill and wife Esther had ten acres of the northwest end, which was bounded by their homestead, and Joseph, the only surviving son, who had settled in what is now West Newbury, had the other seven, which he sold to Daniel Merrill, the deed describing it as "bounding on Sawyer's Lane."

Enoch P.[6] Chase born in 1789, lived in the "Lane" and remembered the Merrill houses, which he located for Mr. Benjamin[7] Chase of Auburn, N. H., who many years later, showed the cellar of the Daniel Merrill house to his son, Benjamin,[8] who, in turn, identified the spot to the writer, John Carroll[9] Chase, and a slight depression may still be seen which marks the place where Aquila[1] Chase lived and died.

The foregoing is an exact copy of the will as it appears on the record book in the Salem Registry. The original will is not to be found but there are reputed copies varying somewhat from the above, as regards spelling and the use of superior letters. It is possible that they were copied from the original will instead of the record book.

SERGT. AQUILA[2] CHASE (Aquila[1]) was born in Newbury (now Newburyport), 26 Sept. 1652; died there 29 July 1720, in the 68th year of his age. He married about 1673, ESTHER BOND, daughter of John and Esther (Blakeley) Bond of Newbury, Rowley and Haverhill. She was born in Newbury, 25 Sept. 1655 and survived her husband.

He was a husbandman and inherited his father's homestead on North Atkinson street in what is now Newburyport. He was chosen a fence viewer at the upper end of Newbury 18 Mar. 1683/4. (Currier's History of Newbury, 1902, p. 116). Aquila Chase, aged 26, was among those who took the oath of allegiance at Newbury 1678. (Ibid. 181).

His inventory for taxation in Aug. 1688 included one head, one house, ten acres of plow land, ten acres of pasture, one horse, two oxen, four cows, one two-year-old, one year-old, fifteen sheep and two hogs. (Ibid. 206). He was a member of the town committee "to stint as to herbage," 12 Dec. 1702. (Ibid. 214). He agreed with the town to care for one Evan Morris at ten shillings per week, 21 June 1689. (Ibid. 216). He was one of the soldiers under the command of Capt. Thomas Noyes at a training in 1688. He was sergeant of the company and was one of the men who went to Amesbury. (Ibid. 659, 660). He made a will but neglected to sign it and his estate was divided by agreement of his heirs, 16 Jan. 1722/3. Daniel Merrill and his wife Esther had ten acres at the northwest end, Joseph[3] Chase, the only surviving son, had seven acres and the buildings which he sold to Daniel Merrill, excepting his mother Esther Chase's dower, 18 Mar. 1722/3. (Essex Co. Deeds, 49: 87).

Esther Chase widow, and Joseph[3] Chase son of Aquila[2] Chase of Newbury dec'd, were appointed administrators of the estate of Aquila[2] Chase of Newbury dec'd, 5 Sept. 1720. Sureties Joseph Bond and John Rogers. Account rendered Feb. 1721/2 mentions paid Joseph Chase, £13: 1: 4; to Thomas Chase, constable, £2; to Mary Freize [Freese], widow, 2/3. etc.

Inventory of Aquila[2] Chase, late of Newbury, who deceased 29 July 1720. Item to one Dwelling house and barn and orchard together with other lands of the homestead in all about 17 acres £250. Item to about 18 acres of salt marsh and flats upon an Island known by the name Chase's Island £95. It. about 6 acres of mowing land joying upon Artichoke River £85; total £685.

Children, born in Newbury (now Newburyport):

ESTHER[3], b. 18 Nov. 1674; m. about 1693, Daniel Merrill of Newbury. She d. in 1751. Eleven children.

ABIGAIL, m. — Oct. 1710, Joseph Robinson of Exeter, N. H.

*In his "Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury," p. 93, Hoyt says that Widow Esther and son Jonathan were appointed to administer upon the estate of Aquila[2] Chase in Sept. 1720. He then lists Jonathan as one of ten children and says he was living in 1720. An examination of the probate records of Essex County shows that this statement, so far as it mentions Jonathan Chase, is entirely incorrect. Administration was granted to Aquila[2] Chase's widow Esther Chase and to his son Joseph[3] Chase 5 Sept. 1720 and the inventory of the estate was presented to the Judge of Probate by Joseph[3] Chase one of the administrators, 5 Dec. 1720. (Essex Co. Probate, 313: 189, 218). Hence it would appear that Aquila[2] had no son named Jonathan.

BENJAMIN, a weaver, m. 20 May 1718, Sarah Bailey. He d. in Newbury, in July 1718 and his widow Sarah m. (2) there, 13 June 1720, Richard Carr Jr. of Salisbury. No children.

THOMAS[2] CHASE (Aquila[1]) was born in Newbury (now Newburyport) 25 July 1654; died in Newbury, 25 Feb. 1733. He married (1) in Newbury, 22 Nov. 1677, REBECCA FOLLANSBEE, daughter of Thomas Follansbee Sr. of Portsmouth, N. H. and Newbury and his first wife Mary ———. She was born about 1660, probably in England, and died in Newbury, 27 Dec. 1711. He married (2) in Newbury 2 Aug. 1714, ELIZABETH MOORES, who was, probably, the widow of Jonathan Moores of Newbury and the daughter of William and Mary Woodhead, born in Chelmsford, 28 Dec. 1674.

Thomas[2] Chase learned the carpenter's trade. He was in the military service in King Philip's War on 27 Aug. 1675 in Capt. Samuel Appleton's Company and was credited £3: 18s. for his service 10 Dec. 1675. (Bodge's Soldiers in King Philip's War, 154). He was in the Narraganset campaign and in Jan. 1701/2 petitioned for a grant of land for his services in 1675 and 1676. (Currier's History of Newbury, 1902, p. 511). In 1678 at the age of 24 he was one of the male inhabitants of Newbury to take the oath of allegiance. In 1679 his family was under the inspection of Abraham Merrill, tithingman. (Ibid. 117). In 1688 he paid a tax on one head, one house, eight acres of plow-land, one acre of meadow, one horse, three cows, two two-year-olds, one yearling, eight sheep and three hogs. (Ibid. 206).

He settled near Amesbury Ferry about thirty rods north of the intersection of the Ferry road with the road leading by the old cemetery at Sawyer's hill at Curzon's tide mill on the Artichoke river. His first purchase was fourteen acres from Nicholas Woodman "bounded with the country highway to Amesbury Ferry," 2 June 1677. His homestead was in what is now Newburyport. It passed to his son, Nathan,[3] and then to his sons, Edmund[4] and Jonathan[4] Chase, who sold it in 1798 to Mr. Jackman and removed to Minot, Me. The old house was taken down in 1875. The land is now a part of the present estate of F. S. Moseley.

Thomas Follansbee of Newbury, joiner, for £56, sells his homestead in Newbury "upon ye plaine" to his son-in-law Thomas[2] Chase 2 Nov. 1711 and Thomas[2] Chase, house carpenter, "for love" sells the same property to his son Aquila[3] Chase, 2 Apr. 1713. (Essex Co. Deeds, 26: 281 and Old Norfolk Co. Deeds, 4: 152).

Thomas Chase of Newbury made his will Aug. 3 1732, which was proved Feb. 25, 1733. All we find is the will.

the covenant and helped form the Fourth Church in 1731. It was "granted to Moses Chase to set in the fore seat by the pulpit" 20 Sept. 1700.

In Aug. 1688, he was taxed on one head, one house, two acres of plow land, one horse, two cows, one two-year-old, one yearling, and seven sheep. (Currier's Newbury, 1902, p. 206). On 13 May 1718, he and several others were granted liberty to use the flats near Holt's rocks on condition that they give one salmon per year to Rev. Christopher Toppan, pastor of the First Church and one to Rev. John Tufts, pastor of the Second Church of Newbury, "if they catch them." (Ibid. 283). He appears on the muster roll of Lt. Caleb Moody in his Company in Her Majesty's service in the woods between Amesbury and "Jamaco" (now Merrimac) in August 1708. (Ibid 536). This service began on 11 Aug. 1708 and he was one of thirty-four soldiers who received powder and bullets under command of Lt. Moody prior to 17 Aug. 1708. (Ibid. 538). He next appears as Ensign of Capt Hugh March's Company of snow-shoe men. This company belonged to the North Regiment in Essex County and was in the service between 1704 and 1710. (Ibid. 540-543).

There are many deeds of land which he bought and sold in Essex County; also deeds recorded in Suffolk County of lands which he bought and sold in Sutton before Worcester County was organized.

The house which he erected stood about 25 rods back from the Haverhill road in the rear of the house which his son Joseph built in 1755 (which house with several additions is still standing in 1927). Here he dwelt from 1689 until his death in 1743.

He made his will 3 July 1740, which was probated 19 Sept. 1743.

The company's return made in Oct. 1775 gives his age as 31 years. This age indicates that this soldier was the son of Nathan[3] Chase and not the son of Joseph[4] Chase who was seven years younger. Parker,[4] or another man of the same name, was in the service from 14 Oct. to 22 Nov. 1779. His father made his will 4 Aug. 1784 in which he refers to his son Parker Chase as having already received his portion, implying that he was then alive. Several of his brothers settled in Deerfield, N. H. and it has been stated that he also settled there. However, he is not the Parker Chase who enlisted from Deerfield as that man was a pensioner and furnished a full record of himself and family in his application for a pension.

CAPT. JONATHAN[4] CHASE (Daniel,[3] Daniel[2]), born in Newbury, 1 Mar. 1732/3; died in Hopkinton, N. H., 6 Feb. 1815, aged 83. He married 7 June 1760, SARAH STICKNEY, daughter of Col. Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Carleton) Stickney of Concord. She was born in Rumford (now Concord), 14 Oct. 1737, and died in Hopkinton, 10 Mar. 1812, aged 74.

Capt. Jonathan was at the battle of Bennington and the taking of Burgoyne. In 1755 he belonged to Col. Rogers's Rangers in the French War. In an action with the Indians near Lake George, he noticed a large stump, through a hole in which shots were being fired. He supposed the person behind the stump would naturally wish to know the result of his shot, so after a short interval after a shot he aimed his musket at the hole and discharged it and a huge savage leaped into the air and fell dead. The Indians soon retreated and as Mr. Chase passed the stump he snatched a large wooden hominey spoon which hung to the Indian's side. The spoon was carried home and is preserved as a family relic. It is now in possession of Dr. Leonard Chase of Springfield, Vt. It is a curious specimen of savage workmanship having the figure of an Indian carved on the handle with a projection as a pedestal. He was in a sitting posture and holding to his mouth a water bottle.

The Gen. Assembly of N. H. 25 Jan. 1772, granted to Jonathan Chase, Beech Island in Conn. river between Cornish and Windsor. He commanded a Regiment at the surrender of Burgoyne and was active throughout the War of the Revolution. (N. H. Hist. Coll. Vol. VII, pg. 72, 219, 223, 254, 263 and Adj. Gen. Rep. Col. He married (2) ESTHER ——— who survived him.

He lived in Sutton until 1764 when he removed to the new township of Cornish. Here he became the first justice of the peace, the first moderator and the first selectman. Although about seventy years of age he was active in the Revolutionary War and went with his son Col. Jonathan Chase with the Regiment to Saratoga and Bennington in 1777. His name appears in connection with nearly all public meetings and documentary transactions of the Revolutionary War period. He was one of the early Judges of the Superior Court of Cheshire County, then including what is now Sullivan County. DANIEL[4] CHASE (Daniel,[3] Ens. Moses[2]), born in Newbury, 18 Sept. 1709; died in Sutton, 1788. He married (1) about 1729, HANNAH TUTTLE of Littleton. She died in Sutton, 18 Feb. 1781, aged about 80. He married (2) in Sutton, 24 Jan. 1782, MARTHA FLETCHER of Grafton, probably a widow. They lived in Sutton and the inventory of his estate was taken, 30 May 1793, with the administration. The church records of Sutton report the death of the "wife of Daniel Chase," 18 Feb. 1781, aged about 80, and the same records again report the death of "Hannah, the widow of Daniel Chase," 15 Dec. 1771, aged about 88. This second record can not refer to the death of the mother of the following children as this woman must have been born about 1683 and was about 57 years of age when the twins were born in 1741, but Daniel[4] Chase was living many years after 1771. She could have been the widow of his father Daniel[3] Chase, but no evidence has been found that the senior Daniel had a second wife Hannah. It is possible that the original record reads: the widow of David Chase died 15 Dec. 1771, aged about 88. This conclusion is likely to be revealed by a critical study of the original church records of Sutton.

In 1859 the management of his father's shipping business and the care of his mother devolved upon him. During the Civil War he disposed of his ships and became interested in the development of railroads. He became a director of the Rutland Railroad and transfer agent and assumed its liabilities of nearly a million dollars by personally endorsing its notes in 1871. This resulted in the restoration of the securities of the company. He also subscribed liberally to the securities of the Burlington and Missouri Railroad and became a director of the Merrimack Manufacturing Company and its President 1888-1892.

He was treasurer of the Somerset Club 1861-1865, and of the Union Club 1868-1870, and was a member of the Committee on the Treasurer's Accounts of Harvard College 1871-1894, and a trustee of the Boston Public Library 1877-1885.

He became a life member of the New England Historic Genealogical Society in 1870 and a member of the Massachusetts Historical Society in 1876.

He was deeply interested in American History and genealogy and prepared a paper on the Chases of Chesham, England, from data furnished by Horatio Gates Somerby, which appeared in the Heraldic Journal for Oct. 1868, and also prepared and published an historical genealogy of the Lowndes family of South Carolina. He also prepared a memoir of his uncle, George Tyler Bigelow, Chief Justice of the Superior Court, which appeared in the Proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society. He purchased from Dr. John B. Chace his large collection of Chase records, which were given to the New England Historic Genealogical Society and have been of inestimable aid in the preparation of this book.

He spent his summers in the British Isles and Europe from 1870 to 1896 and his acquaintance with the English people developed in him "a true appreciation of the mother country, a strong affection for her, and, above all, a deep and abiding conviction of the inestimable importance to civilization of the mutual sympathy and understanding of the two branches of the Anglo-Saxon race."

He was a member of the Episcopal Church and at the time of his death junior warden of St. Paul's Church of Dedham. He died in Dedham, 2 June 1902. Mrs. Chase died 7 May 1906.

Hon. Salmon Portland Chase, named for his father's brother, Salmon Chase who lived in Portland, Me., until his death two years before our subject was born, graduated from Dartmouth College in 1826 and studied law in Washington, D. C., with Hon. William Wirt, attorney general of the United States in 1817, who was distinguished for his lofty ideals, legal, literary, historic and scientific. While studying law he established and conducted a classical school for boys in Washington, and was admitted to the bar 14 December 1829.

In 1830 he located in Cincinnati, Ohio, and engaged in the practice of law. He did not then ally himself with either of the great political parties but was unalterably opposed to slavery. In 1837 he defended a fugitive slave woman, claimed under the law of 1793, and took the highest ground against the constitutionality of that law. In the same year he defended his friend James G. Birney for harboring a negro slave, and in 1838 he reviewed with great severity a report of the judiciary committee of the Ohio senate, refusing trial by jury to slaves and in a second suit defended Mr. Birney. At the organization of the Liberty party in Ohio in Dec. 1841, he appears as one of its foremost founders.

In those years he acted as counsel for many negroes who were claimed as fugitives from Kentucky and among the most noted whom he defended was John Van Zandt—the original John Van Trompe of Uncle Tom's Cabin. This was in the year 1842.

In 1843 the Liberty party held its national convention in Buffalo and nominated James G. Birney for president. Their platform was almost entirely the production of Salmon Portland Chase. In 1844 the Liberty party caused the defeat of Henry Clay for president. Four years later it was superseded by the Free-Soil party whose national convention in Buffalo in 1848 was presided over by Mr. Chase. In 1849 the Democrats and Free-soilers in the Ohio legislature formed a coalition and elected Mr. Chase to the United States Senate, where he served from 1849 to 1855.

In the Senate 26 and 27 Mar. 1850, he made a notable speech against the so-called "compromise measures." When the Democratic party nominated Franklin Pierce for president in 1852 he dissolved his connection with that party. In 1855 he was elected Governor of Ohio by the opponents of Pierce's administration. He was reelected and served as Governor till 1859. He was again elected a Senator to Congress. In the national Republican convention in Chicago, Mr. Chase received 49 votes on the first ballot. On the fifth ballot Mr. Chase's friends gave their votes for Abraham Lincoln. On 4 Mar. 1861, Mr. Lincoln was inaugurated president and selected Mr. Chase as Secretary of the U. S. Treasury.

Horace Greeley said: "When he accepted the office of secretary of the treasury the finances were already in chaos: the current revenue being inadequate, even in the absence of all expenditure or preparation for war, and his predecessor having attempted to borrow $10,000,000 in Oct. 1860 obtained only $7,022,000."

When he went to New York for his first loan, the London Times declared that the Secretary of the Treasury had coerced $50,000,000 from the banks, but would not fare so well at the London Exchange. In his conference with the bankers he said: "If you cannot [loan the government], I shall go back to Washington and issue notes for circulation; for it is certain that the war must go on until the rebellion is put down, if we have to put out paper until it takes a thousand dollars to buy a breakfast." He managed to finance the government during the first three years of the war and received therefor the highest praise.

On 4 Dec. 1864, President Lincoln nominated him as Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Roger B. Taney, and he was immediately confirmed, and served until his death in 1873.

In the course of his official duties he presided at the impeachment trial of President Andrew Johnson in 1868.

His burial-place, in Spring Grove Cemetery near Cincinnati, is marked by an imposing memorial erected by the Bar Association of Ohio.

For a detailed account of his life and achievements see Schucker's Life and Public Services of Salmon Portland Chase, published in New York in 1874.

Rt. Rev. Philander[6] Chase (Dea. Dudley,[5] Judge Samuel,[4] Daniel,[3] Ens. Moses[2]), born in Cornish, N. H., 14 Dec. 1775; died at Robin's Nest, Jubilee, Peoria Co., Ill., 20 Sept. 1852. He married (1) in Bethel, Vt., 29 July 1796, Mary Fay, daughter of Daniel and Mary (Paige) Fay, born in Hardwick, 10 Mar. 1779; died in Worthington, Ohio, 5 May 1818. He married (2) at Zanesville, Ohio, 4 July 1819, Sophia May Ingraham, daughter of Duncan and Susanna Ingraham of Philadelphia, Pa., born in Amsterdam, Holland, 13 Feb. 1783; died 16 Nov. 1864.

Philander Chase graduated from Dartmouth College in 1796 and studied divinity with Rev. Thomas Ellison of Albany, N. Y. He was ordained a deacon of the Protestant Episcopal Church by the Bishop, Rt. Rev. Samuel Prevost, D. D., in New York City, 10 May 1798 and a presbyter by the same Bishop, 10 Nov. 1799. For several years he was a missionary in the State of New York. He became rector of Christ's Church of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and remained until 1805. He then went to New Orleans and organized Christ's Church there, 16 Nov. 1805, and was the rector from 1805 to 1811. He was rector of Christ's Church of Hartford, Conn., 1811 to 1817.

In 1817 he removed to Ohio and took charge of three churches and the Academy at Worthington, Ohio. He was elected Bishop of the Diocese of Ohio, 3 June 1818 and consecrated to that office by Rt. Rev. William White, D. D., at Philadelphia, 11 Feb. 1819. Visiting England he obtained there and at home funds to establish Kenyon College at Gambier, Ohio. He thus became the Founder and first President of Kenyon. He also there established Gambier Theological Seminary. He resigned his offices as Bishop and President 9 Sept. 1831, and removed to Michigan where he engaged in missionary work.

The estimation in which he was held by the alumni of Kenyon College is well set forth in the following song:

"He built the college, built the dam,
He milked the cow, he smoked the ham;
He taught the classes, rang the bell
And spanked the erring freshmen well.
* * * * * * *
"The king, the queen, the lords, and earls,
They gave their crowns, they gave their pearls,
Until Philander had enough,
And hurried homeward with the stuff."

He was elected Bishop of Illinois, 9 Mar. 1835, and again visited England and obtained about $10,000 for educational work in Illinois. His labors culminated in founding Jubilee College at Robin's Nest in the township of Jubilee in 1838. He obtained a charter in 1847, placing the college entirely in the hands of the Episcopal church. He was Bishop of Illinois from 1835 to 1852. He received the degree D. D. from Columbia College in 1819.

He was a man of indomitable perseverance and great strength of will, and was the most energetic and successful pioneer missionary educator of the Episcopal church in the West. He published, A Plea for the West in 1826; The Star of the West, or Kenyon College in 1828; The Defence of Kenyon College in 1831, and Reminiscences, an Autobiography, comprising a History of the Principal Events in the Author's Life in 1848.

His early life was spent on his father's farm, his educational privileges being limited to a few weeks each year in the district school, but before attending any school he had mastered with little aid the common school arithmetic as far as the "Rule of Three," using a piece of chalk and a board in the lack of a slate. His love for mathematics led him to master the higher branches of the science, geometry, trigonometry, surveying, navigation and astronomy, his interest in the lastnamed leading to his calculating the eclipses due for several years to come, his only instruments being "a two foot Gunter's scale and a pair of dividers." Naturally he became the local land surveyor and later prepared a map of the township of "Old Chester," which was of great value in establishing ancient boundaries.

The descendant on his mother's side of two generations of clock-makers, he was a mechanic by inheritance and the building and repairing of sawmills and gristmills in the section of the state in which he lived became his life work.

At the solicitation of Judge Samuel Dana Bell and the Hon. Henry F. French he undertook the compilation and publication of the History of Old Chester, a seven hundred page volume, published in 1869, which has been adjudged as being one of the best of the town histories in the state.

The "Chase Fortune" myth, in which he took no stock, led him to take up genealogical research and the result of his extensive labors, now in the possession of the New England Historic Genealogical Society of Boston, has aided greatly in the preparation of this work.

In addition to his mathematical and mechanical tastes his character was well developed in morals. Early in life he adopted the principle of total abstinence from the use of intoxicants and ever afterward drank nothing but water. When the emancipation of the slaves was first advocated he became an ardent supporter of the reform and also of women's rights, and was often a contributor to the Liberator and the Herald of Freedom.

Notwithstanding a laborious life, the even balance of mental and physical effort conserved his strength and kept his mind clear until near the end, at two months less than ninety years. (For more extended biographies of this branch of the family see the History of Chester, 1926.)

The business was incorporated as The Benjamin Chase Co. in 1907, he being the president of the company until his death. He was very ingenious and invented and constructed the intricate machines used in the plant, some of them being in use nowhere else.

THE DESCENDANTS OF

THOMAS CHASE of HAMPTON

NEW HAMPSHIRE

A large proportion of the descendants of Thomas[1] Chase, bearing the name of Chase, appear among the descendants of Aquila[1] (beginning with Family No. 14,) on account of the intermarriage of their grandchildren.

Had a complete genealogy of Thomas[1] appeared as a separate volume it would have been about double its present size.

THOMAS CHASE AND HIS DESCENDANTS

THOMAS[1] CHASE, a brother of Aquila,[1] first appears in New England, at Hampton, N. H., among the second group of settlers there having a grant of land in June 1640. (History of Hampton, 1:18) He married about 1642, ELIZABETH PHILBRICK [PHILBROOK], daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Philbrick who settled in Watertown as early as 1636 and removed to Hampton in 1645. Her father made his will, 12 Mar. 1663/4, being "very aged" which was probated, 8 Oct. 1667. One clause of the will reads as follows: "and thatt att the Deseace of my Daughter Elizabeth Garland, her son, James Chase shall have one Cow in lew of the Cow which I have Given my daughter Elizabeth." (Probate Records of the Province of New Hampshire, 1635-1717, p. 72)

Thomas[1] Chase died in Hampton shortly before 5 Oct. 1652, upon which day his widow Elizabeth Chase was granted administration upon his estate. She married (2) 26 Oct. 1654, JOHN GARLAND, first of the name in Hampton. He died there, 4 Jan. 1672, aged 50 years and she married (3) in Hampton, 19 Jan. 1673/4, HENRY ROBIE [ROBY] of Hampton, and died there, 11 Feb. 1677.

He and his brother Aquila[1] received grants at the same time. Fourteen persons had received grants on 24 Dec. 1639, and one person on 14 Jan. 1640. These earliest grants were of large tracts for farms but those made in June 1640, to the number of fifty-six were small tracts for house lots.

On 23 Feb. 1645/6, there were granted to sixty proprietors of house lots in Hampton one or more shares in the "Common." Aquila Chase received one share and Thomas Chase two shares while some others received three shares. The common land had been already divided into 147 shares which were given to those who had house lots. (Dow's History of Hampton, 1:33)

Thomas[1] Chase was married about two or three years before his brother was married and he not only had a wife on 23 Feb. 1645/6, but at least two small children. This is why he received two shares of the common lands while his brother had only one.

Dow in his History of Hampton (2:635) states that Thomas was "the elder of the brothers." It is believed that this statement is based upon the fact that Thomas married and was the father of two children before the marriage of Aquila. If the inference is correct Thomas Chase must have been born as early as 1617, or possibly one or two years earlier. This is a reasonable conjecture but must be considered only as approximately true.

No statement of the age of Thomas[1] Chase has been found in any record.

Thomas[1] Chase's homestead was opposite that of his wife's father Thomas Philbrick, and near the Jesse Lamprey house (recently known as the James N. Brown house) a short distance southeast of "The Meeting-House Green."

"Thomas Chase entered his caution about a parcell of meadow & upland with comonage bought of Henry Ambrose, ye 30th of ye 1st mo. [Mar.] 1650." (Old Norfolk Records, 1:8)

"The widdow Chase enters her caution for tenn acres of upland, lying in ye north field wth several parcells of marsh & meadow: all lying in ye bounds of Hampton, wth priviledges belonging to a house lot wth one share of the oxe comon bought of Henry Ambrose 15 of ye 1st mo 1652" [15 Mar. 1652/3]. (Ibid. 1:37)

For confirmation of the deed of Aquila[1] Chase to his brother Thomas Chase made about twenty years before 15 May 1667, see Aquila[1] Chase. (p. 30)

Thomas Chase of Hampton, county of Norfolk, seaman, for £4 sells John Philbrick of Hampton, planter, four acres of upland, meadow and swamp in Hampton, 9 Nov. 1649, in the presence of Thomas Philbrick and James Philbrick. His autograph signature appears on the original deed, as do those of Thomas and James Philbrick (The Chase Chronicle, 10:57). This shows that he and his wife's father were not illiterate.

Edward Colcord of Hampton sells to Thomas[1] Chase of the same town, seaman, three and one-half acres of meadow butting upon a river towards ye west and ye great ox comon towards ye east, also a share of ye great ox comon and half of ye other comonage belonging to Thomas Jones of whom Colcord bought it, 16th 12 mo. 1646 [16 Feb. 1646]. (Ibid 2:233).

Administration on the estate of Thomas[1] Chase of Hampton was granted to his widow Elizabeth Chase, 5 Oct. 1652. The inventory was taken by Robert Page, Abraham Perkins and William Fifield, 2 June 1653. The estate was valued at £111: 18s. 10d. which was attested by Elizabeth Chase the widow.

The Court ordered, 4 Oct. 1653, that the five children of Thomas[1] Chase of Hampton shall have out of their father's estate these amounts: Thomas[2] Chase, the oldest, £16, and Joseph[2] Chase, James[2] Chase, Isaac[2] Chase, and Abraham[2] Chase £8 each, when they are twenty-one years of age. The widow, Elizabeth Chase, gave a bond of £50, with Thomas Philbrick and John Cass as sureties. 3 Oct. 1654, the Court ordered, with the consent of the administratrix, that the children's portions be paid out of the lands. On 10 Oct. 1665, the Court appointed Christopher Hussey, Ens. John Sanborn and Thomas Philbrick, Jr., a committee to divide the estate among the children, with the consent of the administratrix who was to have £4 out of the lands. (Norfolk Co. Court Records in N. H. Probate Records 1:23-4).

At a Quarterly Court held at Hampton, 26 Sept. 1648, Thomas[1] Chase and Aquila[1] Chase brought a suit against William Howard which was continued to the Salisbury Court. (Records and Files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, 1:151).

Thomas Philbrook gave a receipt for 20 shillings from Robert Nanny, as a cask boy, "a nadbroy tasecon," dated 30 Nov. 1648. Witness Thomas Chaes. (Ibid 1:160).

At a Court held at Hampton, 1 Oct. 1650, Thomas[1] Chace brought a suit against Mr. Edward Gilman "for not making good a sufficient boat according to bargain." (Ibid 1:201).

At the same Court "Mr. Hussie, John Sanborn and Thomas Chase had their bonds released in the cases of Richard Waldern and Edward Colcord. (Ibid 203).

18 Nov. 1650, there was due to William Payne & Co. of Ipswich £20 from Thomas Chase. (Ibid 296).

Thomas[1] Chase by his autograph acknowledged his indebtedness to Edward Gilman for building a vessel, pay to be made in freighting, carrying boards from Exeter to Boston, at 18d. per hundred, 3 May 1651. (Ibid 296).

Thomas[1] Chase in Aug. 1652 was owing Edward Gilman £20 he having delivered some boards to Mr. Davison. (Ibid 298).

Rev. Stephen Bachiler, with the first company, removed to Winnacunnet (Hampton) in Oct. 1638. (Dow's History of Hampton, 1:11). In the record of a Quarterly Court held at Salisbury, 11 Nov. 1679, is found "A note of the families in Hampton the first summer that Mr. Bacheller came to Hampton," followed by a list "The second Sumer." Among those in the second list are mentioned "Goodman Fillbrek and Thomas[1] Chaes." This is documentary evidence that Thomas[1] Chase was in Hampton in 1640. (Records and Files of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, 7:280).

John Farmer, in his classification of the early settlers of Hampton, places Thomas Chase among the "young men that had lots," following the settlers in "the Second Summer" after Mr. Bachiler came. (Provincial Papers of New Hampshire, 1:151-2).

LT. ISAAC[2] CHASE (Thomas[1]), born in Hampton, 1 Apr. 1650; died in Tisbury, 19 May 1727, aged about 80 years. The Dr. John B. Chace Manuscript states that he was born 1 Apr. 1647. In naming the heirs of Thomas[1] Chase and of Abraham[2] Chase the above Isaac[2] was named after James[2] and the probabilities are that he was younger than his brother James,[2] notwithstanding that his gravestone calls him "about 80." He was a Quaker and the town records of Tisbury contain the following. "Febbary 5 1674, the townsmen of Tysbury do not give unto isack chace of Hampton liberty to settle in the town Recorded by ordar of the town."

Ebenezer Jenkins's Co. of Col. Freeman's Reg't on the alarm at Falmouth and Dartmouth 6 Sept. 1778 for one week (Mass. Soldiers and Sailors in War of the Revolution, 3:249). He inherited one quarter part of his father's real estate and was co-executor, 31 Jan. 1774.

At a town meeting held in the West Meeting House in Barnstable, 20 Oct. 1784: "Voted to remit Leonard Chase's rates in merchants bills upon condition that he produce a certificate from the town of Sandwich that he has paid his taxes there the same year."

At a precinct meeting in Barnstable, 8 Apr. 1804, "Voted that Leonard Chase be sexton of the North Meeting House the present year, he to ring the Bell on Sabbath days and all other public days and take care and wind up the clock and attend and open the doors of the House on all public days and it is agreed by vote of the precinct that he shall have $17 as full compensation the present year." He continued to serve for several years and his compensation was increased. He was to repair the Meeting House in 1811.

SIXTH GENERATION

THOMAS[6] CHASE (Samuel,[5] Thomas,[4] Thomas,[3] Lt. Isaac[2]), born in Tisbury, 30 Sept. 1755; died in Livermore, Me., Apr. 1844. He married in Tisbury, 8 Mar. 1780, DESIRE LUCE, daughter of Joseph and Jedidah (Claghorn) Luce of Tisbury, born there, 22 June 1756; died 14 May 1851. They removed from Tisbury to Livermore in 1791.

He enlisted on a privateer in the American Revolution. On the coast of England the ship's crew were captured by a British man-of-war. After being transferred several times as prisoners of war they were landed at Plymouth, England, and taken before two justices and a clerk and arraigned for treason. They were committed to "Mill Prison" on suspicion of treason against his most Gracious Majesty George III. They were kept for twenty-three months, during which time they underwent great privations and sufferings. At the end of the period they were exchanged for British prisoners, sent to France and landed at a small town ten miles below Nantes. Here Thomas Chase and his associates reenlisted at L'Orient in the squadron that was being fitted out for John Paul Jones, his ship being the Alliance commended by Capt. Landais. Mr. Chase claimed that it was the Alliance—not the Pallas—that disabled the Countess of Scarborough; that it was in consequence of the broadsides from the Alliance that she struck and that the Pallas, coming up, was left in charge of the prize while the Alliance went to the aid of Paul Jones.

He was a man of much mechanical ingenuity and an excellent worker in wood, and being employed under John Paul Jones for several months, as cabin joiner, he saw much of the famous commander.

JOHN BOWEN CHACE, M. D.

John Bowen[7] Chace, M. D. (John,[6] Stephen,[5] John,[4] Samuel,[3] William,[2] William[1]), of Taunton, was born in Swansea, June 14, 1816. His father died while still a young man, leaving his only son to the care of his mother, Deborah née Macomber, who afterward married William Wilbur of Little Compton, R. I. During his early years he attended the district school of his native town. When about eleven years of age he was sent to the Friends' school in Providence, R. I. There he spent the next five years, including most of the vacation seasons. He was (to judge from reports of his school life still in existence), diligent and faithful in his school work. He was very fond of the higher mathematics, and in later life thoroughly enjoyed wrestling with hard problems until he conquered them.

At the age of seventeen he began the study of medicine with Dr. Wilbur of Fall River, and in 1838 received the degree of M. D. at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. In the fall of the same year he began the practice of medicine in Somerset. There he married Rebecca, daughter of Eber and Sybil Chace who belonged to the Society of Friends. Three sons and a daughter died in infancy. Two sons and three daughters grew to manhood and womanhood, sons and daughters for whose lives he thanked God upon his dying bed.

In 1848, in company with others, he went to California as a physician. The voyage was made on the "old Bark Ann," by way of Cape Horn. He was away about two years and his stay in California was not without its hardships.

From California he embarked as surgeon on an East Indian ship, and then lived a short time in Manila. While there an English physician, Dr. Reed, presented him with an elegant and valuable lace handkerchief containing one hundred dollars in gold as an expression of appreciation for professional service rendered to his wife.

On his return from the East Indies, in 1850, he lived in Somerset five years, and then in Westport two years, removing to Taunton in 1857, where he remained until his death, with the exception of a short time spent in the state of New York.

"As a physician he was faithful and successful, but it was in surgery that he had especial pride. Here his clear judgment, perfect anatomical knowledge, and steady hand, combined to give him a high rank." He often remarked, "It is much easier for a surgeon to take off a badly injured limb than it is to save it; but it is far better for the man to have his limb, even if he can make but little use of it."

He despised shams and make-believe sickness, but he had long patience with real sickness. When asked what enabled him to cure so many people of chronic ailments, his reply was short and to the point—"Patience."

He was a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society from 1848 until his death, and of the North District Medical Society, serving on its board of censors. During the Civil War he was assistant examining surgeon for recruits and substitutes for eastern Massachusetts, and for ten years he served as United States Examiner of Pensioners, until his last illness compelled him to resign, a few months before his death.

He was a member of the Christian denomination, to which he was strongly attached, and while there was a church of that name in Taunton, his house was always "ministers' hotel." While in Westport he held pastoral charge of the small church at Brownell's Corners for some months, and in Somerset and other places he assisted smaller churches by occasionally preaching for them.

In his family relations he was a true and faithful husband and father. He trained his children with especial care. Young physicians, troubled fathers and neighbors in their perplexities often sought his aid, glad to avail themselves of the wise counsel of a true friend.

His genealogical researches, which continued while strength lasted, covered a period of more than thirty years. He thoroughly enjoyed the work, to which he devoted a large expenditure of time, money, and persistent effort, and the inability to complete and publish the result of his labor was a great disappointment.

The voluminous amount of material he had collected and acquired has been of incalculable value in the preparation of the volume in which this well-deserved memoir appears.

His last illness was one of intense and prolonged suffering, borne with patience and faith until the end, which came 31 May 1881.

ADDITIONS and CORRECTIONS

AQUILA[1] CHASE, the immigrant, married about 1644, ANN WHEELER, daughter of John and Ann (Yeoman) Wheeler. She was probably born between 1620 and 1630, as she was the mother of eleven children, born in Hampton, N. H., and Newbury (now Newburyport) between the years 1644 and 1664. Aquila Chase died in Newbury, 27 Dec. 1670 and "ANNE CHASE SR." and DANIEL MISSILLOWAY [SILLOWAY] were married in Newbury, 14 June 1672. "An, the wife of Daniell Mussiloway,"died there, 21 Apr. 1687.

Her father, John Wheeler, came in the ship Mary and John, sailing for New England on or about 26 Mar. 1634. In the shipping list of those who took the oath of allegiance his name was written "John Wheyler." (Drake's The Founders of New England, 70).

He came from Salisbury in Wiltshire. In the parish register of St. Edmund in Salisbury is the marriage record of"JOHN WHELYER & AGNES YEOMAN" on 1 Dec. 1611. (Wiltshire Parish Register Marriages, 13:43).

At that period the Christian names Agnes, Annes and Ann were frequently used interchangeably for one and the same person.

The marriage record of Aquila Chase and Ann Wheeler has not been preserved, but the fact has been established by the will of her father.

John Wheeler of Newbury, "considering my old age and my owne weakness," made his will, 28 Mar. 1668. He mentions his children and among them, "my daughter Anne Chase" to have four pounds. He also gave "to my Sonne Edward Wheeler of the Citty of Salisbury in the Realme of England ten pounds of which he is to pay three pounds and ten shillings to the Chamber[lain] of the Citty aforesaid, also I give & bequeath to my Son Adam Wheeler of the said Citty forty shillings." (Wheeler Genealogy, 394).

John Wheeler was the eldest son of Dominick and Mercy (Jelly) Wheeler and was born in Salisbury about 1589. The register of St. Edmund contains the marriage of DOMINICK WHEELER and MERCY JELLYE, 3 June 1588. (Wiltshire Marriages, 13:22). The last mentioned man must have been born as early as 1568. He died in Salisbury, England, between 12 Dec. 1615 and 16 Feb. 1615/16, when his will was probated, a portion being as follows:—

"Domny Wheller of the Cittye of newe Sarvm [Salisbury] in the County of Wiltes, Sherma,' beinge by the p'vidence of god stricken Sicke of body but of perfect & good memory thanks be vnto god, I do by this my laste will & Testament I will & give vnto my wife Mercy Wheller all & Singular my goodes & Cattell x x x x x x during her naturall life & after her life ther Endinge that then both thes things afor Specified to Come vnto John Wheller the Eldeste Sonne of the forsaid Domny Wheller. I will also and give vnto my sone John Wheller a littel Clock & a plater; moreover I will & give vnto Annes Wheller the wife of John Wheller five chillings or anything to the value thereof. I will and give vnto Edward Wheller, my son John Wheller's Eldeste sone, on[e] silver Spone & to his brother John Wheller one pottinger." (Essex Institute Historical Collections, 44: 292.)

Therefore, Ann Wheeler, the wife of Aquila Chase, was the daughter of John and Ann (Yeoman) Wheeler of Salisbury in Wiltshire and Salisbury and Newbury, Mass., and the granddaughter of Dominick and Mercy (Jelly) Wheeler who lived in the parish of St. Edmund, Salisbury, 1588 to 1616.

of 17 days—marching as far as Sheffield for the relief of Fort William Henry. (Mass. Archives).

A THOMAS CHASE appears in Capt. Selah Barnard's Co. in the French and Indian War. He served from 6 Apr. to 26 May 1759; residence, New Salem; service to the westward. (Mass. Archives, 97:299a). He also appears in Capt. Thomas Cowdin's Co. in the service from 10 May to 17 Nov. 1761; residence New Salem. (Ibid. 99: 113.) He also served in the same company from 1 July to 1 Nov. 1762. The military record states that his father was Thomas Chase.

The above may have been Thomas Chase 147. There is, however, much uncertainty about the identity of the man who rendered this service.
